NORTH POLE DISCOVERED.

Dr. Frederick Albert Cook, an American, Wins This Honor.

Copenhagen, Sept. 1.—According to a telegram received here at the Colonial office today, Dr. Frederick Albert Cook, an American explorer, discovered the North Pole on April 21, 1908. The news has caused great interest.

The message was received from Lervik, Shetland Islands. Dr. Frederick A. Cook, accompanied by a Norwegian, left Etah, Greenland, March 3, 1908, taking with him eight Eskimos, four sledges and twelve dog teams. He was to make his way through the Ellesmere land.

Dr. Cook is on board the Danish government steamer Hans Egede, which passed Lervik at noon today en route for Denmark. The telegram announcing Dr. Cook's achievement was sent by a Greenland official on board the steamer, and reads as follows:

"We have on board an American traveler, Dr. Cook, who reached the North Pole April 21, 1908. Dr. Cook arrived at Uppernivik, the northernmost Danish settlement in Greenland, on an island off the west coast, in May of 1909, from Cape York (in the north-west part of Greenland, on Baffin bay. The Eskimaux of Cape York confirm Dr. Cook's story of his journey."

The doctor started on his present expedition in the summer of 1907, sailing from North Sydney, C. B., on board the schooner John R. Bradley.

The party was reinforced with sledges, dogs and Arctic equipment at Etah, Greenland, whence they sailed March 3, 1908. Dr. Cook's plan was to set aside all tradition by making a dash to the pole during the winter months when the elements are considered the least advantageous for an advance northward.

The last news received from him was dated March 17, 1908, when he was near Cape Thomas Hubbard.

Philathea Notes.

The Philathea class met in business session Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. Y. Byrd, for the purpose of electing a president for the class, as Mrs. C. H. Brown, who has so ably filled that office for the past few months, leaves soon for Tampa, her future home. Mrs. Brown will be missed by all Live Oak friends, but doubly so by the Philathea class, as she has shown marked faithfulness, sincerity and interest in each member since becoming a member of the class. The class, as a whole, trust that she will meet with as much success in her new home in the same work as she has in Live Oak. The Philatheas showed extremely good judgment in electing Mrs. M. K. Jones to take Mrs. Brown's place as president. Mrs. Jones is energetic, works unceasingly for the interest of the class, and has been one of the most enthusiastic members the class has ever had, and they feel confident she will fill this responsible office quite well.

Miss Rosa Wolfe was elected assistant secretary, to take the place of Miss Hallie Mardre, who recently married Mr. W. H. Dowling, of Starke.

Several other business discussions came before the class, and were decided upon, after which delightful refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served by Miss Flossie Byrd and Miss Maggie McGhee.

The Philathea class is doing good work here, and hope to build the class up considerably when the warm summer days have passed.

This is not a denominational class, though it meets at the Baptist church every Sunday morning at 9:45.

Everybody invited to visit the class.
